WAVE OF PATRIOTISM IS SWEEPING GERMANY

Enthusiasm for War Been Displayed.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch I
BERLIN, August 4 (delayed).—Not since the days of 1870-1871 has this city known such an enthusiasm, such a clamor for war, such excitement in the streets and every public place. The speech from the throne was made to day, in which the Kaiser repeated that in these days there exists but one party in Germany—German—but one religion—German—that he expected that every German will follow him through talek and thih.

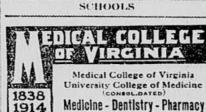

It was a most brilliant gathering, and it it had not been for the serious atmosphere which overclouded the assembly, it might have been taken for
